Visa Requirements for an F-1 Student Visa

In order to receive an F-1 student visa to study at Saint Paul, you will need the following:

- Your passport
- Your I-20 from Saint Paul
  View the requirements to get your I-20
- Form DS-160 application  (Check a U.S. embassy/consulate for information)
- A bank statement showing you have sufficient funds to attend Saint Paul
- SEVIS paid receipt
  Pay your SEVIS fee at https://www.fmjfee.com

U.S. embassies or consulates in certain countries may have additional document requirements. After you have the required documents, present them to a U.S. embassy or consulate to receive your F-1 student visa.

To receive a student visa, you will also need to show:

1. Your plan is to study at Saint Paul.
2. You are connected to your home country and will return there after completing your degree.

After you receive your F-1 student visa:

- Notify Saint Paul so we can prepare for your arrival.
- Remember that you can only enter the U.S. 30 days or fewer before the start date on your I-20.
