

Getting Started

Here is a brief guide to get started with library research at Saint Paul School of Theology.

Find the Library Website from the SPST home page or from Moodle

On the Library website, you will find contact information for our libraries in Kansas and Oklahoma. Note that our library in Oklahoma is part of Oklahoma City University, so there is a link to that library's home page for information on hours, etc. and the library catalog for that library's collection. There is also a web address for a special page with information for Saint Paul students about using the OCU Library.

Scrolling down, you will find a list of the databases we provide for your research needs. There are detailed tutorials for using most of them.

EBSCOhost
EbscoHost is a powerful online reference system. This is where you will find the ATLA Religion Database with ATLASerials PLUS (ATLAS PLUS), providing access to journal articles, book reviews, and collections of essays in all fields of religion. In addition, EBSCOhost provides access to various academic databases and to multidisciplinary eBook titles found in the MOBIUS catalog.

Ebook Central (ProQuest)
Ebook Central provides access to eBooks purchased for Saint Paul students as well as eBooks from trusted publishers in all academic subject areas along with powerful research tools. You can search directly on the Ebook Central webpage or in the KC-Towers catalog to find eBooks available to Saint Paul students. A personal account is required to download books and chapters, annotate and use the bookshelf. An account is not required to search and read online. When you get to the Ebook Central homepage, click Sign In on the right side of the menu bar to create a personal account.

Encyclopedia of the Bible and Its Reception (EBR)
Published by De Gruyter, ERB is a comprehensive encyclopedia of interdisciplinary and international biblical reception. It includes Hebrew Bible, New Testament, and historical contexts and spans biblical reception in Judaism, Christianity, Islam, and other religions as well as in literature, visual arts, music, and film.

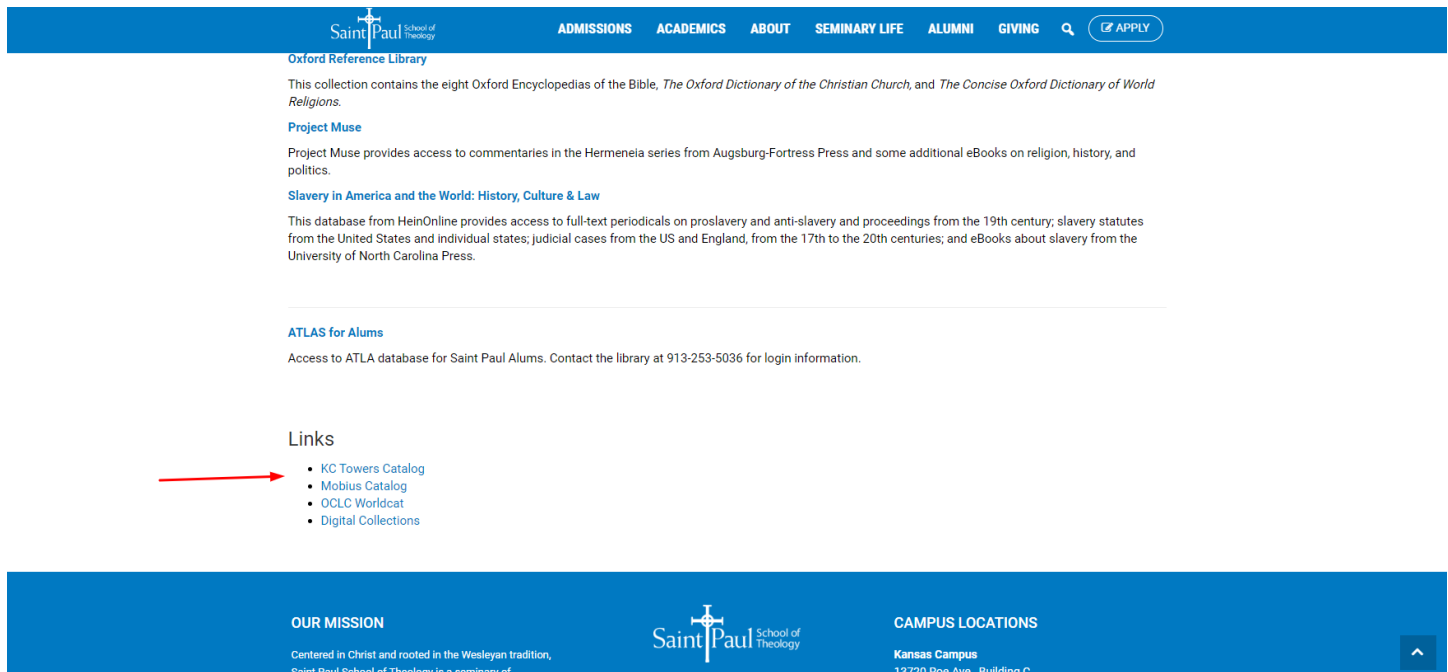

Ministry Matters
Published by Abingdon Press, Ministry Matters has resources on the topics of preach, teach, worship, reach, and lead. The resources include electronic copies of commentaries from Abingdon Press such as New Interpreter's Bible, Abingdon Old Testament Commentaries, Abingdon New Testament Commentaries, and Believer's Church Biblical Commentary.

Oxford Biblical Studies Online
Oxford Biblical Studies Online provides a comprehensive resource for the study of the Bible and biblical history. The database provides an integration of authoritative scholarly texts and reference works with tools that provide ease of research into the background, context, and issues related to the Bible.

Oxford Reference Library
This collection contains the eight Oxford Encyclopedias of the Bible, The Oxford Dictionary of the Christian Church, and The Concise Oxford Dictionary of World Religions.

Project Muse
Project Muse provides access to commentaries in the Hermeneia series from Augsburg-Fortress Press and some additional eBooks on religion, history, and politics.

Further down, you will find links to several library catalogs. Our primary catalog is the KC Towers Catalog, which is your starting point for finding books in our Kansas library, or finding books to borrow from other libraries if you live in Kansas or Missouri. There are detailed tutorials for using them.
