

MICAH CORPS COORDINATOR DESCRIPTION

JOB DESCRIPTION:

The coordinator recruits, supports, and supervises young adult interns through the 10-week Great Plains Conference Micah Corps summer program. The end goal is to create space for interns to discern their call linking faith and social justice.

The Micah Corps program is a social justice internship based on Micah 6:8 which states, “What does the Lord require of you, but to do justice, love mercy, and walk humbly with your God?” The program provides interns with opportunities to: grow in their spiritual walk with God, link faith with social justice action, learn and conduct community organizing basics, strengthen leadership skills, and build relationships with local leaders within civic, social justice, and religious circles based in Omaha, Nebraska.

ESSENTIAL JOB FUNCTIONS:

- Recruit 4-6 young adult interns alongside MC Program Director
- Support the interns’ summer work by facilitating their weekly assignments
- Arrange interns’ summer schedule and church speaking engagements
- Connect and provide interns with civic, nonprofit, and other social justice opportunities for their education
- Collaborate with Program Director, host church pastors, lay teams, and Great Plains Mercy and Social Justice Team to fulfill summer internship goals
- Provide supervision to the interns by ensuring the goals of the program are achieved
- Lead the interns on an immersive trip to Washington D.C. or Montgomery, AL (COVID-permitting)
- Facilitate theological discussions and offer constructive feedback during presentations
- Attend a leadership orientation when hired

REQUIREMENTS:

- Bachelor’s degree
- Preferred: Graduate degree (including those completing their graduate degree)
- Preferred: experiences with social justice and faith-based organizations
- Experiences working in diverse environments.
- Excellent written and verbal English skills
- Basic familiarity with the United Methodist Church
- Detail-oriented and highly organized person

- Can work independently with minimal supervision.
- Familiar with Gen Z and millennial cultures and enjoy working with young adults
- Strong interpersonal and healthy conflict management skills

MAJOR ACCOUNTABILITIES:

- Report to the Micah Corps Program Director
- Uphold the Micah Corps covenant and responsibilities throughout the summer
- As staff, represent the Great Plains Conference throughout the summer

COMPENSATION:

- Full-time (40 hours/week) at a minimum of $13.50 per hour with expected negotiation based on experience
- Free housing
- Travel reimbursement

READY TO APPLY?

To apply, send your resume, a letter of interest, and two professional references to Rev. Maddie Johnson, Micah Corps Program Director, at mmjohnson@greatplainsumc.org by December 23rd, 2022.

To learn more about Micah Corps, please visit our website at <https://www.greatplainsumc.org/micahcorps>