

Full-Time Pastor

Friedens Church of Washington, Washington, Texas

Texas- Friedens Church of Washington, located in Washington, TX is currently seeking a full-time pastor to lead our congregation. Friedens Church of Washington is a conservative church located in rural central Texas, formerly a member of the United Church of Christ that has recently become non-denominational. We have an average Sunday attendance of 62 people made up of all ages with the majority being mature adults. Candidate should be a strong spiritual leader who ministers to sick and homebound members as well as leads our Sunday worship service. We are looking for someone to shepherd, teach and grow our congregation.

If you are interested in applying for this position or would like more information, please email resume and any questions to friedenspastoralsearch@gmail.com.