About the Senior Pastor

The Senior Pastor at Arcadia Methodist Church is a vital presence in a safe, tight-knit rural community. This role centers on nurturing relationships within the congregation and the broader town. Beyond preaching, the pastor provides care and actively builds connections, with success measured by the pastor becoming a respected community leader and the church growing younger. The ideal candidate has a heart for rural areas, relational experience, and qualities like empathy, flexibility, and humor, ready to invest in a genuinely welcoming community.
